The Potentate Speaks:

Nobles:

You and I both are keenly interested in the condition of our membership. Each time I find it necessary to sign a demit for a Medinah Noble, I do so with the thought in mind that we should offset the loss by having an application for affiliation and knowing that there are literally hundreds of Shriners now living in Chicago who belong to other Temples, I am sure a goodly number of our Nobles know personally some of them who should belong to Medinah. Our November Ceremonial calls for candidates and affiliates.

A little effort on your part and mine will corral some of these almost homeless Shriners. We have nearly two months' time in which to round them up for the November Ceremonial. Won't you make an effort to bring these in?

There is no cost for affiliation and a telephone call to the Recorder's office—Whitehall 4266— will give you the method of procedure, or just ask your friend to write to his Temple for a demit and then you get an application blank from our Recorder and have it signed and turn same in to Medinah's Recorder.

Now, just read the inside front cover again—So You'll Know—about our Fall and early Winter activities—that's what you have to sell.

Yours in the faith,

Our Guests in November

Now then, to "warm the cockles" of your heart we will honor our living Past Potentates at the November Ceremonial and also we hope to have our Illustrious Imperial Potentate with us at that time.

This means that our Temple should be over-flowing with Nobles and in doing our part to entertain you we can say now your enthusiasm will not be dampened.

Glowing tributes have been paid to these worthy Illustrious Nobles in the past but as time endears them, all the more to us, we should do our part, if in no more fitting way than being present to wish them well . . .

NORMAN J. KISSICK
Recorder

HAVE YOU THE ANSWERS?

The Recorder of the Temple is the great father confessor for the Nobility of the Shrine. He knows all, sees all and rarely says anything about it.

His office is as private as the well-known gold fish bowl — he sees everybody that wants to see him and most Nobles do.

He can laugh, cry and collect dues at one and the same time.

Many Nobles pass into the Recorder's office with a scowl—few go out without a smile. He has the chin to take it when he needs to, but he usually side steps even a shadow of trouble. His foot work in this respect is only exceeded by his head work.

Part of the advantages of being a Noble of Medinah is the privilege it carries of coming in contact with Noble Norman Kissick who carries in his midrib section, all of the fortitude and sympathy that makes a good Recorder.

All of which the Recorder did not write about himself—much as it may sound like it. However, he did write the following questions, and if you know the answers, get in touch with him at once.

Do You Know:—

A fellow who would like to be a Shriner?
A fellow who ought to be in the Shrine?
A Shriner who has not his 1937 card?
A Shriner who has his card and does not attend?
A Shriner who should be re-instated?
A Shriner who is carrying his demit?
A Shriner who should be affiliated?
A Shriner who thinks he can't get $12.00 worth out of the Shrine?

GET THAT CANDIDATE

Hit the trail for every candidate you know and follow him day and night. Talk to him. Ogle him. Buy him cigars. Make him all kinds of promises. Tell him you've heard a lot of nice things about him. If he has a sweetheart, tell him she is the most beautiful girl in the world. If he has a wife, tell him she is the finest woman you ever saw. If he has children, buy them candy and let them mix molasses in your hair. Mold him, shape him, haunt him, until he comes to look upon you as his best friend. Make him believe that you are lonesome at the Temple without him. Tell him that you want him to become a Shriner, and convince him that it is the one thing lacking to make his life perfect. Then if he hesitates, creep up behind him with a piece of lead pipe, knock him down, and drag him by the coat-tail or fore-lock. He may feel sore while the feel of the billy lasts, but he will rise up afterwards and call you blessed.

FORE—FORE—FORE

Yep—we had three Medinah Golf Tournaments this summer. One at Brier Hill on the north side, one at Olympia Fields on the south side, and one at Medinah Country Club on the west side. "Jim" McVittie as chairman, together with Fred Renshaw and Harry Keator to balance the committee, did a bang-up good job and are to be heartily commended for getting on the job and staying on the job to see that every player got a run for his money—some are running yet.

You would too—had you participated in a great Medinah Double Stag at Olympia Fields, Thursday, July 29th.

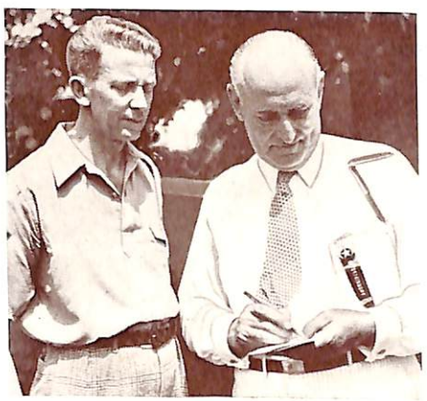
Golf and bridge and luncheon and dinner and a splendid, par excellent entertainment in the evening—out under the stars. Medinah Nobles and their ladies helped to make up a party five hundred strong and every fourth golfer received a prize. Why! even those who didn't play golf or bridge reported a splendid day of fun, recreation and luxurious meals.

Olympia had a grand layout—the club house, the grounds, the location. Everyone found something interesting. Her four golf courses are "gems." If they invite us again I believe they will have double the attendance.

A thrilling tale may lie buried deep within the little square inklined plane of our Potentate's score card—and particularly so on the 15th hole of number four course; a tale of the ruin which fell like a thunderbolt upon the making of an exceptionally fine score on the last nine; of the course that a little white golf ball took from the tee into the trees, hence under a bush; of its further journey into the tall grass on the opposite side of the fairway; of the chasm engulfing the little white pill; of red-flamed words sweeping the green when a six-inch putt hung on the lip of the cup, and finally, in the last convulsion of all, his opponents would not concede the final blow. Result 10 strokes on the hole which is marked Handicap No. 1 for that particular course.

Medinah's Chanters—more than forty of them—helped entertain in the evening. Their gang songs went over with a bang and as a balance to Past Potentate "Artie" Vincent's theme song, they were marvelous and when it came to their own "Lift Up Thine Eyes" they just outsmarted everything up to now—an all-time record.

—and then another Golf Tournament at Medinah Country Club, August 19th and if you will repeat after us—"we had a marvelous time and a 'peach' of a gang to play," you will have told yourself the whole story. Those who failed to go missed a glorious day.



"Nothing serious about this", says Captain of the Guard McVittie to Potentate Griffis.

SHRINERS ENJOY PICNIC FOR THE FAMILY

Medinah's Nobility, ladies and friends comprised a happy throng that thoroughly enjoyed themselves at Medinah's annual picnic on August 7th in the beautiful picnic grove at Medinah Country Club. The early birds, out to catch all the pleasure so lavishly provided, began streaming through the Arabian gates of the club at 8 a. m., and the late comers were still passing the guards until considerably after dark.

This was the third picnic held by the greatest Temple in Shrinedom at the finest golf club in Shrinedom. A soft breeze through the hundreds of shade trees furnished a welcome relief from the heat of the city.

Coffee, ice cream and milk in unlimited quantities, the gift of Medinah, placed the perfect touch on the picnic lunches each party brought with them and enjoyed eating at the tables in the grove.

There were races and games galore, with prizes in apparently unlimited quantities for the lucky winners. The grandstand erected for the occasion was filled to capacity during the athletic events, with the overflow of spectators and rooters lined up behind the ropes. Blueberry pie and watermelon were devoured by the youngsters, and for the grownups a milk drinking contest furnished a roar of laughter.

There was dancing all afternoon and evening, golf for all who wished to play, both men and ladies; tennis or what have you. An excellent buffet supper was served in the evening for those who wished to eat in the spacious dining room and when the last car had departed for home, Medinah could once more feel happy in having provided for her members and friends, a perfect and happy day . . .

The Medinah Country Club is an ideal place for a Medinah Picnic—the grounds are so spacious one would hardly know that we had more than four thousand persons out there on Saturday. It would have been just as easy to have taken care of ten thousand or more.

The following check on arrival of cars and the number of persons who came in the gates is interesting.

TIME	No. of Cars	No. of Persons
8 A.M. to 9 A.M.	44	113
9 A.M. to 10 A.M.	74	227
10 A.M. to 11 A.M.	76	266
11 A.M. to 12 A.M.	91	485
12 A.M. to 1 P.M.	96	293
1 P.M. to 2 P.M.	165	522
2 P.M. to 3 P.M.	166	759
3 P.M. to 4 P.M.	205	766
4 P.M. to 5 P.M.	108	409
5 P.M. to 6 P.M.	71	232
	1096	4072

—and there were a lot more who came after six o'clock—the dancing lasted a long time after the moon showed up.

HERE'S A FASCINATING MYSTERY

Headaches are warnings; find causes and cure them.

Now, then, some of our Nobles had real pains, etc., etc., at the Shrine Picnic at Medinah Country Club, August 7th.

Specialists will agree that the way to cure a headache is to find the cause—

Well, the Assistant Rabban could have been the cause of a headache to a group of would-be song-birds. They just didn't have enough good old horse sense to quit when they were through. But, who were the "Wild Irish Roses?"

IT IS A SPLENDID THING TO DO AND YOU BRASS BAND NOBLES ARE ENTITLED TO APPLAUSE

Harry H. Brooks

Harry J. Chidley

On Tuesday, August 10th, Medinah's Brass Band gave a concert at the Edward Hines Hospital (U. S. Veterans) out on the lawn on a cooling evening and they were heartily applauded. Harry Chidley, Manager, and Harry Brooks, Director, and the Band Boys find time to do this kind of a thing and you and you and you should be happy to know that Medinah boys are alive to the needs of the shut-ins.

Noble F. Wheeler Wadsworth was Master of Ceremonies.

The Band was assisted by the Oxford Quartette under the management of Noble William L. Riedell. Noble Case Lee Griffis, the Illustrious Potentate, was present and addressed the large audience.

Our Brass Band has been doing this kind of work for years and in addition to going to the Veterans Hospital, they make an annual date at the Municipal Tuberculosis Sanitarium and the County Hospital. Nobles, you all haven't known of what our boys do from time to time—so, better get the habit and participate in all of Medinah's events. What say?

This Letter Received From The American Red Cross Tells A Splendid Story

August 19, 1937.

Mr. Harry Chidley
Medinah Temple Brass Band
175 W. Jackson Blvd.
Chicago, Illinois
My dear Mr. Chidley:

We have received glowing reports of the splendid program presented by the Medinah Temple Brass Band recently. The patients had been looking forward to it and both the men and women were out in large numbers and enjoyed it immensely

The selections were all peppy and stirring. The solo numbers chosen by Mr. Brooks showed him to be the master of his instrument, the cornet. He responded with an encore, after much applause.

The Oxford Quartette singing "Base Viol" received so much applause that they had to respond with two encores.

The "Star Spangled Banner" played during the lowering of the Flag Ceremonial was also very impressive.

"The "Thunderer March" brought to a close this very fine program. All of the numbers rendered received great applause from the patients. The patients, ever since the program, have been talking and commenting on the fine program and have mentioned many times the splendor of your band's uniforms. They are so colorful and to the veterans it is such a treat to see them. They are already anticipating a return of your band next summer.

Please express our appreciation to Mr. Wadsworth, the Master of Ceremonies, who added much life to the "Party" by his genial wit and story telling between the numbers; to Mr. Griffis, the Potentate, for his interest in the men; and to yourself for so beautifully managing the concert.

Again thanking you for making possible such a memorable evening for the hundreds of disabled men, I am

Sincerely yours,
Florence Breitzmann,
Sec. to Mrs. Pettengill

VETERANS ADMINISTRATION
Hines, Illinois

August 27, 1937.

Mr. Harry J. Chidley, Manager,
Medinah Temple Brass Band,
A-1320—175 W. Jackson Blvd.,
Chicago, Illinois.
Dear Mr. Chidley:

I wish to take this opportunity of expressing to your entire organization and yourself our thanks for the marvelous Concert presented by the Medinah Temple Brass Band here at this hospital, and arranged for you through the Chicago Chapter of the American Red Cross.

It takes a lot to make these disabled veterans have something to occupy their minds outside their own disabilities, and it seems that your program was "just what the Doctor ordered." The boys have been commenting very favorably also on your director, who deserves special credit for the band being such a swell one, and also the Oxford Quartette, and Medinah Saxophone Band. It is not often we are fortunate in hearing splendid music such as your band presents, and we are all grateful to all of you for your kind interests.

Thanking you again on behalf of Colonel Hugh Scott, manager of this hospital, and the seventeen hundred and fifty patients, and assuring you that anytime in the future you may see your way clear to favor us with another visit, there will be an open date, I beg to remain

Sincerely yours,
John R. O'Connor,

WHAT DO YOU BRING BACK?

The most important thing to bring back from your visits to Medinah events is a mental camera picture of the good fellowship you bumped into.

When a prospective candidate asks you about Medinah activities, just tell him how many things the Temple has for the Nobility during the year.

Tell him just like you would of your vacation: rainbows viewed from mountain tops; moonlight beams on rippling streams; sunsets; purple clouds; the glowing coals of a campfire; the song of birds in early morn; the smell of bacon frying and a glimpse of deer bounding through the woods —tell him of the surcease from a heavy, busy day at work; tell him of the good, wholesome laughter you heard during the second section; tell him of your admiration for ritualistic work, well done; tell him of the old friend you made happy by your cheery "Hello, Noble." Tell him about our picnics, our golf tournaments, our pageants, our dances, our boxing events.

Then you'll bring back the most wonderful thing in the world—happy days among sterling good fellows . . .

ADVICE TO THE NOVICES

Be on hand promptly, dressed as if you were going coon hunting on a dark night.

* * * *

Don't try to make friends with the camel when the goat is around.

* * * *

It is a wise novice who knows whether he is a guest, a victim or just one of the bunch.

* * * *

If you hear an unusual commotion just duck and smile; don't ask what it means.

* * * *

The novice who makes good is one who removes the gag and says, "Give me the limit."

* * * *

Don't ask for anything; you will get all that is coming to you.

* * * *

If you are asked to do anything undignified, don't hesitate to refuse; say firmly but gently, "I won't," then wait for results.

* * * *

You can be of good cheer, but don't get too gay.

* * * *

Take a good nerve tonic before coming. Make up your mind to see things that are startling, but don't flinch when you see them. We don't like flinchers.

* * * *

Don't get frightened in advance. There will be time for that later on. Have a good time and be happy before things break loose.

* * * *

If the sands blister your feet, congratulate yourself that you are not a centipede and if your throat becomes dry and parched, be thankful that you're not a giraffe. If your ears ache, be glad that you are not a Missouri mule.

WHAT'S ALL THE SHOOTIN' ABOUT?

A vanguard of Nobles; a party of scientific ground explorers landed at Medinah Country Club, Wednesday, August 11th, to join in the Camel Trail—which is an annual trek to find the 19th or the 37th hole; and as per legend, they found them.

The Other Fellow Said:

"Give me my trusty rifle—my No. 5 iron" and then he shot for the green. His ball rolled and rolled and rolled across and down; down into the sand. And, he said: — — — — — . Or would that take too much of the noise and "color" out of your game.

Orchids and Tittle-Tattle:

Our genial Past Potentate, E. Edwin Mills with his playmate, Past Imperial Potentate Tom Houston, successfully played the 19th hole with a few of the Nobles who struggled around the course during the day.

It was just an acknowledgment of frustration from Fred Renshaw when he said "Oh, Fudge" when his fourteen inch putt failed to drop.

In his footloose days of old, Director Albert Hancock, P. P., never had funnier movements than when he attempted to lead three roaming singers and a bass tuba player during the dinner hour. Even Illustrious Noble Will H. Wade spread a straight-lined grin across his benign physiognomy during the tumult and shouting. Beg pardon—the rendition.

Our Recorder was hot on his game with a net 69. Ain't that somethin'?
